

“Preparing for a Movement: Lessons from Rwanda for Restorative Justice and Reconciliation”

A gathering of restorative justice and faith-based reconciliation organizations and leaders envisioned as a way to provide space to understand the structural roots of violence and trauma and the application of African worldview, faith-based methods to address both the cause and effect. To move us to Ubuntu and Shalom.

When: November 5, 2018, 9:00AM-5:00PM and November 6, 2018, 10:00AM – 5:00PM

Where: South Shore Cultural Center, 7059 South Shore Dr., Chicago, IL. 60649

Registration: <http://rjlessonschi.eventbrite.com/>

Cost: Adults $50.00 Students $20.00

Mennonite
Central Committee

Justice and Witness Ministry, Chicago Metropolitan Association, Illinois Conference,
United Church of Christ

SAMUEL DEWITT
PROCTOR
CONFERENCE

